

Tourist Attractions

Artist Statement

Mary McKenzie

Behind all my landscape work is the question "What is a landscape?".

This on-going enquiry proposes various possibilities of what a landscape might be. The series 'Tourist Attractions' is one of these possibilities. The computer manipulated images began as shots of intersections in front of tourist attractions. The index number and the corresponding thumbnails from the photo-cd reference this photographic source material so that viewers may consider the relationships between source material and the re-interpreted pixels, the connection between the intersection and the tourist attraction, and whether the image fulfills their personal notion of what a landscape can be.

The works are 10" x 10" on 11" x 11" Plexiglas.